I offer Interim and Change Management (national/international)

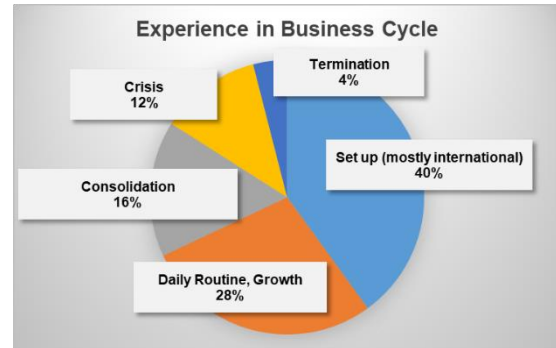

As an ambitious and driven manager with vision, I offer assistance with strategic projects and decisions for long-term corporate success.

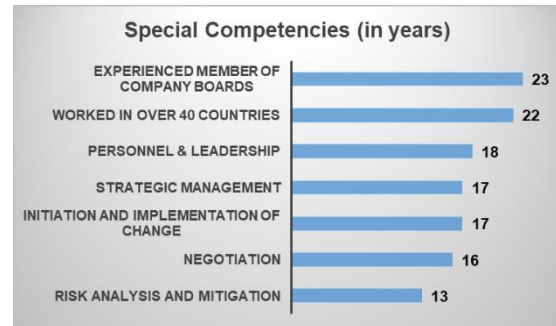

I am an enthusiastic change manager. My contributions to corporate success as CEO, CFO, and as consultant include:

You benefit from my comprehensive commercial knowledge gathered from a diverse range of industries (banking, infrastructure, construction and operations) and business cycles.

My special competencies include:

I am used to solve cross border challenges. I speak fluent German (native speaker) and English and have conversation knowledge of French.

Your profit is the support and implementation of strategically important projects, which have no room in daily operations. My approach is based on the values of fairness, transparency, integrity, and respect, which are important to me.

My advisory style is driven by the principles of competency and implementation strength.
